New Oriental Announces Revised Outlook for the Third Fiscal Quarter 2009

BEIJING, February 12, 2009 — New Oriental Education and Technology Group Inc. (the “Company”) (NYSE: EDU), the largest provider of private educational services in China, today announced revised guidance for its third fiscal quarter 2009 financial results.

New Oriental currently expects third fiscal quarter 2009 total net revenues to be in the range of US$62.0 million to US$65.0 million, representing year-over-year growth in the range of 28.9% to 35.1%, respectively, and compared to the previously stated guidance range of US$65.5 million to US$67.5 million.

“The economic downturn in China has had a greater than anticipated effect on New Oriental’s cash proceeds (cash collected from students in advance for course enrollments) over the past several weeks and we are therefore revising our third fiscal quarter 2009 revenue guidance downwards to reflect current expectations,” said Louis T. Hsieh, New Oriental’s chief financial officer. “We believe that this is a short term effect, as Chinese families place a high priority on spending for their children’s education, behind only food and housing. As the trusted leader in China’s private education market New Oriental should continue to benefit from these strong underlying fundamentals.”

About New Oriental

New Oriental is the largest provider of private educational services in China based on the number of program offerings, total student enrollments and geographic presence. New Oriental offers a wide range of educational programs, services and products consisting primarily of English and other foreign language training, test preparation courses for major admissions and assessment tests in the United States, the PRC and Commonwealth countries, primary and secondary school education, development and distribution of educational content, software and other technology, and online education. New Oriental’s ADSs, each of which represents four common shares, currently trade on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “EDU.”
